ARTISTIC ROOTS

Inspired by ancestral knowledge, the role of women in folk traditions and the symbolic power of the tree of life, Ukrainian architect, designer and artist Victoria Yakuska created DREVO (Ukrainian for "tree") — a collection of 18 engraved steel panels that mimic the motifs young women would historically paint on the clay walls of their homes as everyday gestures of care, hope and continuity. Each panel in the collection bears a traditional Ukrainian woman's name — a tribute to the legacy of folk knowledge passed down through generations. — JENNIFER QUAIL victoryakuska.com
